

AniCura Student Ambassador

Do you want to gain first-hand exposure to a career at AniCura while earning some extra money to support your studies?

AniCura is looking for enthusiastic students with a real aptitude for networking to be our Student Ambassadors for the upcoming year!

What is the role of a Student Ambassador?

Working as a Student Ambassador, you will be representing AniCura at your university: You will be using your great network and do various activities from social media posts, student society/ association engagement, and networking events (webinars, live chat sessions, job fairs and more!).

Why should you apply?

- Earn a salary while working flexibly and managing your own time.
- Opportunity to represent an international organisation and be able to gain insights and experiences from our clinics all over Europe.
- A fun and rewarded role where your creativity is valued.
- Will look fantastic on your CV!

We want to hear from you if...

You are enthusiastic, curious and professional.
You have campus connections
You are organized and structured
Want to shape the future of veterinary care together, with us at AniCura

Sounds interesting? Please find more information here: <https://anicuraglobal.teamtailor.com/pages/studentambassador>

We are looking forward to meeting you soon. Share your passion with us.

