SAWE Summer School 2024 Join Us

The Summer School will give all participants the opportunity to interact with young graduates, researchers and professionals from different backgrounds and countries, and to network with people with a strong interest in animal welfare and animal ethics.

Intensive courses, seminars and workshops are designed to provide up-to-date information, stimulating reflection and disseminating knowledge on strategies and policies for the protection of non-human animals in the EU, as well as addressing emerging ethical concerns.
